BLACK HORSE VS. LOCUST TO CHICAGO.

The Pittsburgh Commercial Gazette says: "The Pennsylvania Central Company has a fleet of barges, containing several millions of bushels of grain, barrels of flour, and other products of the West, which are now on the canal between Pittsburgh and Erie, and which will be sent to Buffalo, New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and other Eastern cities. The destination of this fleet is not known, but it is probable that it will be sent to New York. The New Orleans Times says that the Mississippi River trade is beginning to revive, and that the Eads jetties are doing their work well. The Memphis Avalanche says that there is no prospect for a cotton crop in Tennessee, and that the people are living from hand to mouth. The Rev. Dr. Newman, of Washington, D. C., has published a letter in favor of the Pope's temporal power. The Cincinnati Commercial says that the Ohio River is falling rapidly, and that navigation will soon be suspended. The Cincinnati Gazette

OLD SETTLERS' MEETING.

THURLOW WEED

His Autobiography.

From the New York Times, August 11.

The autobiography of Mr. Thurlow Weed, of which we published a brief sketch yesterday, will be issued on the 1st of next month by Houghton, Osgood & Co., of Boston. It is now in the hands of the binder, and will be ready for delivery in a few days. The work is in two volumes, and contains over one thousand pages. The Hon. Thurlow Weed has been for more than forty years the most conspicuous political leader in the State of New York, and has had the advantage of the most perfect knowledge of the political history of the State and Nation during that period. He has been the confidential friend of nearly all the leading statesmen of the country, and has had the most intimate relations with the Presidents of the United States from Mr. Clay to Mr. Lincoln. His autobiography will therefore be a most valuable contribution to the political history of the country, and will be read with the greatest interest by the people of the United States.
